

Book of Remembrance

June 1, 2009

Dear Members & Friends of the Temple Israel Family:

It's time to prepare our Book of Remembrance. Erev Rosh Hashanah begins on Friday, September 18, 2009 and Yom Kippur is September 28, 2009.

Traditional Jewish practice encourages us to remember our departed loved ones at Yizkor Services at four stated times in the Religious Year. The Book of Remembrance is used during the services throughout the year on these dates: September 28, 2009 for Yom Kippur, Shemini Atzeret on October 10, 2009, Pesach on March 30, 2010 and Shavuot on May 19, 2010.

On these High Holy Days, as we have in the past, our congregation will distribute the Book of Remembrance at the Yizkor Service on Yom Kippur. Our Book of Remembrance contains the prayers, meditations and readings that are part of our Yizkor Service along with the names of loved ones whose memory we honor. If you have a Memorial Plaque for your loved one, their name is automatically listed. A separate section of our book is devoted to those loved ones in whose memory you wish to make by making a charitable offering.

Please indicate on the form on the back of this letter, the names of your relatives and loved ones. Donations for these listings are $10 per name. Your contribution helps to cover the cost of printing the Book of Remembrance.

To have your names published, you must fill out and return this form along with your contribution, no later than July 17, 2009. If you would like information about purchasing a Memorial Plaque, or have any other questions, please contact the Temple Israel office at 704-362-2796.

Zecher Tzadik Liv-racha, may the memory of your loved ones always be a source of blessing, and may this New Year bring you and yours togetherness, joy, learning and good health.

L'Shanah Tovah,

Temple Israel Staff
